Bloor Collegiate grade 12 drama student say “Great acting. I love the ideas of the taxi driver and all of the different stories. I love how everyone’s story is so different, but so similar at the same time.”

“I really loved the play and I hope you guys come back to do another piece (you made me cry).”

“I know too many people in this situation so I would like to say thank you for this play.”

A Nelsan Boylen Grade 10 drama students said.

“what I remember most was that when the Chinese girl couldn’t go back and see her sick mother in China”

A Sir Wilfred Laurier Collegiate student said “I’ll [sic] like to commend you folks for doing a good job. I look forward to having you back at Laurier with the full presentation.”

A Contact Alternative School student said “I was going to leave school early but I stayed for the play and I must say I loved it. I was very nice.”

“A very moving play that clearly demonstrates how violence, persecution and war affects peoples lives.”

A Winston Collegiate Institute student said “Overall it was a great play which looks at how writers are censored in non-democratic countries outside Canada.”

“I remember the Mexican lady’s suffering and the guy taking pictures of his passengers (which is very significant to me).
